to tender (within six days) if the delay will constitute a detriment to the dispute or other good cause is shown.

(2) When the memorial refers to matters in which the Government is not presently interested.

(3) When the memorial refers to a case which turns entirely on questions of fact and the Political Officer and the Resident are in agreement.

(4) When the memorial is an appeal against the withholding of a passport by the Resident.

(5) When the memorial is a representation against a decision which is declared to be final by any law or rule framed by a competent authority.

(6) When the memorial is a representation against a failure to exercise a discretion vested in the Crown Representative or the Resident.

2. Provided they do not contravene the conditions specified in the preceding section, memorials which are appeals against orders passed by Residents in the exercise of their political control, shall be forwarded, except in the following cases in which a discretionary power to withhold the memorial may be exercised—

(1) When the order appealed against has been passed by the Resident as a Magistrate Court of Appeal in regard to a judgment or order of any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction established or continued by the Crown Representative.

(2) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to exercise political control in regard to a judgment or order of any special court established or continued by the Crown Representative from which court there is, by its constitution, no appeal, though a general political control error is declared or understood to exist.

(3) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to interview in a matter of purely internal policy with the action or orders of the Ruler of an Indian State, of which the memorialist is a subject; provided that the matter complained of does not appear to be of sufficient importance to deserve the attention of higher authority.

(4) When the order appealed against is a temporary administration established or continued in an Indian State by the Crown Representative or the Resident, and is intended to exercise the same power and carry the same policies as the State administration which it replaces.

(5) When the order appealed against has been passed by the Resident for Residents sitting as a Magistrate Court of Appeal in cases arising within the British India.

(6) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(7) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(8) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(9) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(10) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(11) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

(12) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

appeal and by a letter requesting its transmission to the authority to which it is addressed.

3. Memorials may be transmitted either in manuscript or in print, but must work all accompanying documents, be properly authenticated by the signature of the memorialist, or when the memorialist is a corporation, by the signature of one or more of them.

4. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, every memorial received which contains in the above rules should be forwarded by the Political Officer through the local official channel with a concise statement of material facts and, where there is special reason to the contrary, an explanation of opinion.

5. Memorials together with their accompanying documents, should be in English. If the accompanying documents are not so written, they should be forwarded in the vernacular, an English translation should be appended, which should be attested by the signature of the memorialist.

6. Every memorial should be accompanied by a copy of all the orders passed in the case by the Government and the local official channel.

7. Residents are notified with discretionary power to withhold memorials submitted by the memorialist or the Secretary of State in the following cases—

(1) When the memorial is illegible or unintelligible.

(2) When the memorial contains language which, in the opinion of the authority who would otherwise forward it, is defamatory, derogatory, or abusive.

(3) When a previous petition of the memorialist (which form includes a remonstrance submitted by the memorialist in answer to a previous petition of some other party) has been disposed of by the Secretary of State and the petition contains no new facts or circumstances which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case.

(4) When the memorialist has not previously appeared in the Crown Representative and received his decision.

(5) When the memorial is an appeal preferred more than six months after the date at which the memorialist was notified of the decision against which he appeals, provided that the Resident may, in the exercise of his discretion, extend the period to twelve months only, if the delay will facilitate a settlement of the dispute or other good cause is shown.

(6) When the memorial refers to matters in which the memorialist is not presently interested.

(7) When the memorial is in effect an appeal in a boundary case between two Indian States in which the request, appeal or application of the Political Officer has been passed after dispute has arisen and continued on appeal by the Resident.

(8) Cases which turn entirely on questions of fact, where the Political Officer and the Resident are in agreement.

(9) When the memorial is an appeal against the withholding of a passport by the Resident.

(10) When the memorial is a representation against a decision which is declared to be final by any law or rule framed by a competent authority.

(11) When the memorial is a representation against a failure to exercise a discretion vested in the Crown Representative or the Resident.

8. Provided they do not contravene the conditions specified in the preceding section, memorials which are appeals against orders by the Crown Representative shall be forwarded, except in the following cases in which a discretionary power to withhold the memorial may be exercised—

(1) When the order appealed against has been passed by the Crown Representative, as a Magistrate Court of Appeal in regard to a judgment or order of any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction established or continued by law.

(2) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to exercise political control in regard to a judgment or order of any special court established or continued by the Crown Representative from which court there is, by its constitution, no appeal, though a general political control error is declared or understood to exist.

(3) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to interview in a matter of purely internal policy with the action or orders of the Ruler of an Indian State, of which the memorialist is a subject; provided that the matter complained of does not appear to be of sufficient importance to deserve the attention of higher authority.

(4) When the order appealed against is a temporary administration established or continued in an Indian State by the Crown Representative or the Resident, and is intended to exercise the same power and carry the same policies as the State administration which it replaces.

(5) When the order appealed against has been passed by the Resident for Residents sitting as a Magistrate Court of Appeal in cases arising within the British India.

(6) When the memorial is an appeal against an order passed by the Resident for the States of Western India under the Chief Court Rules published in the Western India States Agency Notification No. 41, dated the 27th April 1956, or in an appeal against an order passed by the Resident in regard to a dispute arising in the Ruler's Council Agency. In the latter case an appeal to the Crown Representative will be admissible only with the permission of the Resident.

PART II.

Memorials, etc., addressed to His Majesty the King-Emperor of India or to the Secretary of State for India.

1. Every memorial must be submitted to the Political Officer of the State or International Area within whose jurisdiction the subject-matter has arisen, accompanied by a copy of the order appealed

2. The memorialist should be notified (7) of the date at which he must submit his memorial to the Political Officer of the State or International Area within whose jurisdiction the subject-matter has arisen, accompanied by a copy of the order appealed

The Statute.

As, Act to provide, during future months, for the discipline and regulation of the Army and the Air Force.—[1898 April 1898.]

Whereas the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom is one of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law:

And whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty and this present Parliament that a body of land forces should be maintained for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of His Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and seventy thousand, exclusive of the numbers actually serving in India or Burma:

And whereas under the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1897, His Majesty is enabled to raise and maintain the air force, and it is judged necessary that the whole number of such force should consist of eighty-three thousand, exclusive of the numbers serving in abroad:

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of this realm that a body of Royal Marine forces should be maintained in His Majesty's fleet and naval service under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, elsewhere:

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be employed or be on shore, or be sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or coast or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of His Majesty's forces by sea:

And whereas he may be discharged of His or her, or subjected in time of peace to any law of punishment within this realm, by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the laws and established laws of this realm; yet, nevertheless, it being requisite, for the retaining of the before mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law or to the Air Force Act, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed and that persons belonging to the said forces who are, or are up to, or desert His Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military or naval discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow:

And whereas the Army Act and the Air Force Act will expire in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight on the following days:—

(a) In Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April, and

(b) Elsewhere, whether within or without His Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of July.

It is therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be cited as the Army and Air Force (Annual) Act, 1898.

2. Army Act and Air Force Act to be in force as provided herein:—(1) The Army Act and the Air Force Act shall be in force in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, and in any year subsequent thereto, in the manner provided by Parliament, that is to say:—

(a) Within Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight to the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, both inclusive; and

(b) Elsewhere, whether within or without His Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight to the thirty-first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, both inclusive.

(3) The Army Act and the Air Force Act, while in force, shall apply to persons subject to military law or to the Air Force Act, as the case may be, whether within or without His Majesty's dominions.

(4) A person subject to military law or to the Air Force Act shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act or Air Force Act by reason only that the number of the forces by the force being in the service of His Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number herebefore mentioned.

3. Provisions in respect of offences.—There shall be paid to the keeper of a visiting house for the accommodation provided by him to persons of whom are included and out of the Army Act or the Air Force Act the price specified in the Schedule to the Act.

AMENDMENTS OF THE ARMY AND AIR FORCE ACTS.

PART I.

AMENDMENT OF THE ARMY ACT APPLICABLE ALSO (SUBJECT TO RESERVATIONS) TO THE AIR FORCE ACT.

4. Amendment of Army Act, s. 108, and Air Force Act, s. 120.—(1) Section one hundred and thirty-eight of the Army Act shall be amended by the addition of the following subsection:—

(2) Notwithstanding anything in any law in force as aforesaid in India or Burma, no part of the pay of an officer or soldier in the regular forces shall be payable by direction of a court or authorities of any court or other authorities against him.

Provided that nothing in this subsection affects any attachment order made by a court in India or Burma as respects of any money received before the end of the year nineteen hundred and thirty-eight.

(3) The reference in subsection (2) of this section to the Army Act shall be deemed to include a reference to the Air Force Act, and the provisions of that subsection shall in their application to the Air Force Act have effect subject to any of the several modifications set out in Part I of the Second Schedule to the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1897, which apply.

(5) Where separate applications are made by different persons to be registered as proprietors respectively of trade marks that are identical or nearly identical or, in respect of the same goods or description of goods, the Registrar may refuse to register any of them until their rights have been determined by the Court, or have been settled by agreement as a referee appointed by him or as an agreed arbitrator, or, in either case, until the Board of Trade or to the Court at the option of the applicant by the Board or the Court, as the case may be.

10. Registration in Part A to be conclusive as to validity after seven years—(1) In all legal proceedings relating to a trade mark registered in Part A of the register (including applications under section thirty-five of this Act) the original registration in Part A of the register of the trade mark shall, after the expiration of seven years from the date of its registration, be taken to be valid in all respects, unless—

(a) that registration was obtained by fraud, or

(b) the trade mark itself justified the provisions of section eleven of this Act.

(2) Nothing in section (1) of section five of this Act shall be construed as making applicable to a trade mark, as long as a trade mark is entered in Part A of the register, the foregoing provisions of the section relating to a trade mark registered in Part A of the register.

11. Registration subject to disclaimer—(1) A trade mark—

(a) contains any part not separately registered by the proprietor as a trade mark; or

(b) contains matter common to the trade or otherwise of a non-distinctive character;

the Registrar, on the Board of Trade or the Court, in deciding whether the trade mark shall be entered or shall remain on the register, may require, as a condition of its being so registered, that—

(a) that the proprietor shall disclaim any right in the contents of any part of the trade mark, or in the exclusive use of all or any portion of any such matter as aforesaid, to the extent and of which the trade mark shall not be entitled; or

(b) that the proprietor shall make such other disclaimer as the Registrar may consider necessary for the purpose of defining his rights under the registration.

Provided that no disclaimer as the Registrar shall allow any rights of the proprietor as a trade mark except such as are not of the registration of the trade mark as such or of which the disclaimer is made.

12. Words used as name or description of an article or substance—(1) The registration of a trade mark shall not be deemed to have become invalid by reason only of any use, after the date of the registration, of a word or words which the trade mark contains, or of which it consists, as the name or description of an article or substance.

Provided that, if it is proved before—

(a) that there is a well-known and established use of the word or words in the name or description of the article or substance by a person or persons carrying on a trade thereon, not being one in relation to goods connected in the course of trade with the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark; or

(b) that the article or substance was formerly manufactured under a patent (being a patent in force on, or granted after, the twenty-third day of December last) and was, and was, at the time of the patent was applied, and that the word or words in it are the only reasonable name or description of the article or substance.

(2) Where the facts mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the proviso to the foregoing subsection are proved with respect to any word or words, then—

(a) if the trade mark consists solely of that word or those words the registration of the trade mark, so far as respects registration in respect of the article or substance in relation to which the word or words of the same description, shall be deemed for the purposes of section thirty-five of this Act to be an entry wrongly made on the register,

(b) if the trade mark contains that word or those words and other matter, the Court or the Registrar, in deciding whether the trade mark shall remain on the register, so far as respects registration in respect of the article or substance in relation to which the word or words of the same description, may, in the exercise of a discretion as to the removal of the trade mark, require as a condition thereof that the proprietor shall disclaim any right in the exclusive use of the article or substance and any goods of the same description of which word or those words, or, however, that no disclaimer on the register shall affect any rights of the proprietor of a trade mark except such as are not of the registration of the trade mark as such or of which the disclaimer is made; and

(c) for the purposes of any other legal proceedings relating to the trade mark.

(3) If the trade mark consists solely of that word or those words, all rights of the proprietor whether under the trade mark law or by registration, in the exclusive use of the trade mark in relation to the article or substance in relation to which the word or words of the same description, or

(4) If the trade mark contains that word or those words and other matter, all such rights of the proprietor to the exclusive use of that word or those words in such relation as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have ceased at the date at which the use mentioned in paragraph (a) of this proviso to the foregoing subsection first became well known and established, or at the expiration of the period of ten years mentioned in paragraph (b) of this proviso.

(5) No word which is commonly used and accepted name of any single chemical element or single chemical compound, as distinguished from a mixture, shall be registered as a trade mark in respect of a chemical substance or preparation, and any such registration in force at the commencement of this Act or thereafter shall be deemed to have expired on the date of the expiration of the period of ten years mentioned in paragraph (b) of this proviso.

Provided that the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall not have effect in relation to a word which is used to denote only a brand or trade of the element or compound or to which the proprietor or a registered user of the trade mark, as distinguished from the element or compound as made by others, and in connection with a notable name or description open to the public use.

13. Effect of invalidity as to colour, and of colour itself—A trade mark may be invalid in whole or in part to the extent of the colour, and in any such case the fact that it is so invalid shall be taken into consideration by any tribunal having to decide on the distinctive character of the trade mark.

It shall so far as a trade mark is registered without limitation of colour, it shall be deemed to be registered for all colours.

Procedure for, and duration of, registration.

14. Application for registration—(1) Any person claiming to be the proprietor of a trade mark used or proposed to be used by him who is desirous of securing its registration as such in the Register is the proprietor of a trade mark or of a trade mark in Part A or in Part B of the register.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar may refuse the application, or may accept it absolutely or subject to such amendments, modifications, conditions or limitations, as he may think right.

(3) In the case of an application for registration of a trade mark other than a certification trade mark in Part A of the register, the Registrar may, if the applicant is willing to do so, require the applicant, from time to time, to furnish particulars in Part B and deal with the application accordingly.

(4) In the case of a renewal or conditional renewal, the Registrar shall, if required by the applicant, state in writing the grounds of his decision, and the interested party may, on giving thereof, and the decision shall be subject to appeal to the Board of Trade or to the Court at the option of the applicant.

Provided that the foregoing provisions of this sub-section shall not have effect where the individual is a British subject.

on that there has been no loss of trade and of the trade mark that has been removed through the two years immediately preceding its removal.

(1) that no deception or confusion would be likely to arise from the use of the trade mark that is the subject of the application for registration by means of any previous use of the trade mark that has been removed.

21. Hydrogenation of acids of fatty acids and of fatty acids as it exists.—(1) When the properties of a trade mark claims to be entitled to the exclusive use of any part thereof separately, he may apply to register the whole and any such part as appears to be essential.

Each such separate trade mark must satisfy all the conditions of an independent trade mark and shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of section 24 and subsection (2) of section 30 of the Act, have all the attributes of an independent trade mark.

(2) When a person claiming to be the proprietor of several trade marks, in respect of the same goods or description of goods, which, while assuming each other in the material particulars thereof, yet differ in some detail—

all statements of the goods is relative to which they are respectively used as proposed to be used, or

(4) styrene of amber, prime, quality at same of above; or

(2) either matter of a non-exclusive character which does not substantially affect the identity of the trade dress; or series to register these trade marks, they may be regarded as a series of non-registrations.

Assessment and Documentation

12. Power of, and restrictions on, assignment and transmission.—(1) Notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary, a registered trade mark shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, assignable and transmissible either in substance or in the entirety of a business or not.

(2) A registered trade mark shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, assignable and transmissible by impact without all the goods in respect of which it is registered, or was registered, as the case may be, or at some (but not all) of those goods.

(12) The provisions of the two foregoing subsections shall have effect in the case of an unregistered trade mark used in relation to any goods in any manner in the case of a registered trade mark registered in respect of any goods, if at the time of the assignment or transmission of the unregistered trade mark it is or was used in the same business as a registered trade mark, and if it is or was assigned or transmitted on the same terms and to the same person as that registered trade mark and in respect of goods all of which are goods in relation to which the unregistered trade mark is or was used in that business and in respect of which the registered trade mark is or was assigned or transmitted.

of any goods in respect of which the trade mark is registered on the basis of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defective trade mark, or any which is registered as a defective trade mark on the ground that there is no longer any likelihood that the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods would be taken to give the proprietor mentioned in sub-section (2) of this section.

(3) The Registrar may at any time cancel the registration as a defective trade mark of a trade mark of which there is no longer any registration in the name of the same proprietor otherwise than as a defective trade mark.

(4) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of the registration of trade marks on defective trade marks and of trade marks so registered as they apply in other cases.

(5) Registered marks.—(a) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person other than the proprietor of a trade mark may be registered as a registered user thereof in respect of all or any of the goods in respect of which it is registered otherwise than as a defective trade mark, and subject to all without conditions or restrictions.

The use of a trade mark by a registered user thereof in relation to goods with which he is connected, to the course of trade and in respect of which for the time being the trade mark remains registered and he is registered as a registered user, being not such as to comply with any conditions or restrictions to which his registration is subject, is in this Act referred to as the "permitted use" thereof.

(b) The permitted use of a trade mark shall be defined to be use by the proprietor thereof, and shall be deemed not to be use by a person other than the proprietor, but the provisions of sections twenty-two and twenty-three of the Act and for any other purpose for which such use is material under this Act or at common law.

(c) Subject to any agreement subsisting between the parties, a registered user of a trade mark shall be entitled to demand upon the proprietor thereof, and, if the proprietor refuses or neglects to do so, within three months after being so called upon, the Registrar may make suitable arrangements for enforcement in his own name as if he were the proprietor, making the proprietor a defendant. A proprietor so added as defendant shall not be liable for the costs unless he appears as appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

(d) Where it is proposed that a person should be registered as a registered user of a trade mark, the proprietor and the proposed registered user must apply in writing to the Registrar in the prescribed manner and must furnish him with a statutory declaration made by the proprietor, or by some person authorized to act on his behalf and approved by the Registrar.

(e) Giving particulars of the relationship, existing or proposed, between the proprietor and the proposed registered user, including particulars showing the degree of control by the proprietor over the permitted use which their relationship will confer and whether it is a term of that relationship that the proposed registered user shall be the sole registered user or that there shall be any other restriction as to persons for whom registration as registered user application may be made.

(g) stating any conditions or restrictions proposed with respect to the circumstances of the goods, to the persons at place of permitted use, or to any other matter;

(h) stating whether the permitted use is to be for a period or without limit of period, and, if for a period, the duration thereof;

and with such further documents, information or evidence as may be required under the rules made by the Registrar.

(i) When the requirements of the last foregoing sub-sections have been complied with, if the Registrar, after considering the information furnished as to how and that the information furnished as to all the circumstances of the use of the trade mark is satisfied, in the proposed goods on any of the conditions or restrictions which the Registrar thinks proper would not be contrary to the public interest, the Registrar may register the proposed registered user as a registered user in respect of the goods on to which he is so entitled subject as aforesaid.

(j) The Registrar shall refuse an application under the foregoing provisions of this section if it appears to him that the goods thereof would tend to facilitate trafficking in a trade mark.

(k) The Registrar shall, if so required by an applicant, take steps for carrying out the investigation given for the purposes of an application under the foregoing provisions of this section (other than matter referred in the register) is not deemed to speak as to truth.

(l) Without prejudice to the provisions of section thirty-five of this Act, the registration of a person as a registered user—

(a) may be revoked by the Registrar as regards the goods in respect of which, or any conditions or restrictions subject to which it has effect, on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor of the trade mark, so that the registration ceases;

(b) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of the registered proprietor or of the registered user or of any other registered user of the trade mark; or

(c) may be cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner of any person on any of the following grounds, that is to say—

(i) that the registered user has used the trade mark otherwise than in any of the permitted use, or in such a way as to cause, or to be likely to cause, deception or confusion;

(ii) that the proprietor or the registered user misrepresented, or failed to disclose, some fact material to the application for the registration, or that the circumstances have materially changed since the date of the registration;

(iii) that the registration might not have been effected having regard to the rights in the trademark or to the rights in the trademark in the performance of which he is interested.

(d) Provision shall be made by the rules for the satisfaction of the Registrar as to a person or a registered user to any other registered user of the trade mark, use for the satisfaction of an application under the last foregoing subsection to the registered proprietor and not the registered user (not being the applicant) of the trade mark, and for giving to the applicant on such an application, and to all persons to whom such an application is notified and who intervene in the proceedings in accordance with the rules, an opportunity of being heard.

(e) The Registrar may at any time cancel the registration of a person as a registered user of a trade mark or person of any goods in respect of which the trade mark is so being registered.

(f) Any provision of this section shall be subject to the provisions of the last section.

(g) Nothing in this section shall render as a registered user of a trade mark any personable or transmissible rights to the use thereof.

(h) Proposed use of trade mark by corporations to be established, etc.—(i) An application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of any goods shall be refused, or shall be refused, if such registration be refused, on the ground that it appears that the applicant does not use or propose to use the trade mark.

(ii) If the Registrar is satisfied that a body corporate is about to be incorporated, and that the applicant intends to assign the trade mark to the persons to whom the use thereof is to be limited to those goods by the corporation; or

(iii) if the applicant is a corporation or an application for the registration of a person as a registered user of the trade mark, and the Registrar is satisfied that the proprietor intends it to be used by that person or persons, or that the person or persons is also satisfied that the goods are not to be registered as a registered user thereof immediately after the registration of the trade mark.

(j) The provisions of section twenty-five of this Act shall have effect in relation to a trade mark or trademark, and the power conferred by the foregoing subsections, in or for the purposes, in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section, in relation to the person or persons for whom registration of a trade mark shall be used by him there were before the appointed day and for the first time being submitted, and the Member Board shall on all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed.

(3) The right of inspection conferred by the last foregoing subsection shall extend to and include the right to inspect all applications whatsoever for registration that were made to the Member Board, between the passing of the Trade Marks Registration Act, 1938, and the appointed day, in respect of which goods, whether registered, refused, lapsed, expired, withdrawn, abandoned, cancelled or pending.

(4) Revised marks which, immediately before the appointed day, were included in the collection of revised marks kept under rules one hundred and twelve to one hundred and sixteen of the Trade Marks Rules 1939, and are at the time of the application for the registration of a trade mark included in that collection and/or the said mark shall be treated for the purposes of sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 12 of this Act, but for no other purpose, as if they had been registered trade marks.

(5) Before making any rule, or proceeding any form, that is to deal specially with trade marks registered or proposed to be registered in respect of textile goods other than printing, the Board of Trade shall send a draft thereof to the Trade and Merchandise Marks Committee of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, and shall, if the said committee so request, give them an opportunity of being heard.

(6) The Registrar, or the keeper of the Manchester Branch, may demand the said committee where it appears to him to be expedient so to do with a view to any circumstances peculiar to the textile trade arising on an application to register a trade mark in respect of textile goods other than printing.

(7) A certificate purporting to be under the hand of the keeper of the Manchester Branch of an entry in the register shall be prima facie evidence of the entry having been made in the register and of the contents thereof.

(8) The Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster shall, with respect to any action or other proceeding in relation to a trade mark registered or proposed to be registered pursuant to an application made to the Manchester Branch, where the registered proprietor or the proposed registered proprietor is willing, or submits to, the jurisdiction of that court, have the like jurisdiction under this Act as His Majesty's High Court of Justice in England, and the expression "the Court" in this Act shall be construed and have effect accordingly.

Provided that every decision of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster in pursuance of this subsection shall be subject to the like appeal as decisions of that court in other cases.

GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Repeal and Savings.

34. Power of Board of Trade to make rules.—(1) The Board of Trade may from time to time make such rules, provisions, orders and generally do such things as they think expedient:

(a) for regulating the practice under this Act, including the system of documents;

(c) for making or requiring duplicates of trade marks and other documents;

(d) for hearing and regulating the publishing and selling or distribution, in such manner as the Board of Trade think fit, of copies of trade marks and other documents;

(e) generally, for regulating the business of the Patent Office in relation to trade marks and all things by this Act placed under the direction or control of the Registrar or of the Board of Trade.

(2) Rules made under this Act shall, where in force, be of the same effect as if they were contained in this Act.

(3) Before making any rule under this Act, the Board of Trade shall consult such of their officers as make the rules and of the place where copies of the draft rules may be obtained, in such manner as the Board consider most expedient so as to enable persons affected to make representations to the Board before the rules are finally settled.

(4) Any rule so made shall be forthwith advertised in the Trade Marks Journal, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be in session at the time of the making thereof, or, if not, as soon as practicable after the beginning of the first next session of Parliament.

(5) If either House of Parliament, within the next forty days after any rules have been so laid before it, resolves that the rules or any of them shall be amended, the rule or rules shall nevertheless be of an effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder or to the making of any new rule or rules.

(6) There shall be paid in respect of applications and registration and other matters under this Act such fees as may be, with the sanction of the Treasury, prescribed by the Board of Trade.

Powers and duties of Registrar.

35. Preliminary notice by Registrar as to directions.—(1) The power to give is a power which proceeds to apply for the registration of a trade mark as Part A or Part B of the register shall be whether the trade mark appears to the Registrar to be suitable for registration in Part A or Part B, or capable of distinguishing, as the case may be, shall be a function of the Registrar under this Act.

(2) Any such person who is desirous of obtaining such advice must make application to the Registrar therefor in the prescribed manner.

(3) If on an application for the registration of a trade mark as to which the Registrar has given advice as aforesaid in the affirmative, made within three months after the advice is given, the Registrar, after further investigation or consideration, gives notice to the applicant of objection to the ground that the trade mark is not capable of distinguishing, or capable of distinguishing, as the case may be, the applicant shall be entitled, on payment of costs of withdrawal of the application within the prescribed period, to have appeal to him any fee paid on the filing of the application.

36. Reasons before exercise of Registrar's discretion.—Where any discretionary or other power is given to the Registrar by this Act or the rules, he shall not exercise that power adversely to the applicant for registration or the registered proprietor of the trade mark in question without (a) duly invited so to do within the prescribed time giving to the applicant or registered proprietor an opportunity of being heard.

37. Power of Registrar to overrule.—In all proceedings before the Registrar under this Act, the Registrar shall have power to award in any party such costs as he may consider reasonable, and in default hereof and by what parties they are to be paid, and any such order may, by leave of the Court or a judge thereof, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the Court in the same Act.

38. Annual reports of Registrar.—The Registrar, General of Patents, Designs and Trade Marks shall, in his annual report on the activities of his office under the Patents and Designs Act, 1938, and the Trade Marks Act, 1938, include a report respecting the activities by or under him of this Act as if it formed a part of or was included in those Acts.

Legal proceedings and appeals.

39. Registration to be prima facie evidence of validity.—In all legal proceedings relating to a registered trade mark (including applications under section 25 of this Act) the fact that a person is registered as proprietor of the trade mark shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the original registration of the trade mark and of all subsequent assignments and transmissions thereof.

40. Certificate of validity.—In any legal proceedings in which the validity of the registration of a registered trade mark comes into question and is decided in favour of the proprietor of the trade mark, the Court may certify in that effect, and if it so certifies then in any subsequent legal proceedings in which the validity of the registration comes into question the proprietor of the trade mark on obtaining a final order or judgment in his favour shall have his full costs, charges and expenses as between solicitor and client, unless the subsequent proceedings the Court certifies that he ought not to have them.

40. Date of Register in proceedings before Court, and payment of costs by Registrar.—(1) In all proceedings before the Court under this Act the costs of the Registrar shall be in the discretion of the Court. (2) In any proceedings in England or Northern Ireland, the Registrar shall not, except in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section, be ordered to pay the costs of any notice or of the parties.

(3) Where the Registrar appears in any proceedings before the Court in England or Northern Ireland under this Act, notice given of the Judgment, or of the Registrar's decision under the provisions of the Judgments Act, 1838, or any corresponding enactment which may be passed by the Parliament of Northern Ireland, as the case may be, shall have effect as if it had effect in relation to other proceedings to which the Court is a party in a case between subjects.

41. Trade mark, etc., to be considered.—In any notice or proceeding relating to a trade mark or trade name, the tribunal shall admit evidence of the nature of the goods concerned and of any trade mark or trade name or get-up legitimately used by other persons.

42. Registrar's appearance in proceedings involving evidence.—(1) In any legal proceeding in which the subject matter involves evidence or questions of fact, the Registrar shall have the right to appear in the Court, and shall appear if so directed by the Court.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the Registrar is to be appearing and being heard and to be subject to the Court's directions in writing signed by him, giving particulars of proceedings before him in relation to the matter in issue or of the grounds of any decision given by him affecting it or of the grounds of the Patent Office in like case or of such other matters relevant to the issue, and within his jurisdiction in England, or in Northern Ireland, and the statement shall be deemed to form part of the evidence in the proceeding.

43. Court's power to review Registrar's decision.—The Court, in dealing with any question as to the rectification of the register (including all applications under any provision of section thirty-three of this Act), shall have power to review any decision of the Registrar relating to the entry in question or the correction sought to be made.

44. Decision of Court in appeal.—In any appeal from a decision of the Registrar to the Court under this Act, the Court shall have and exercise the same discretionary powers as under this Act are conferred upon the Registrar.

45. Procedure on appeal to Board of Trade.—Where under this Act an appeal is made to the Board of Trade, the Board of Trade may, if they think fit, refer the appeal to the Court in lieu of hearing and deciding it themselves, but, unless the Board so refer the appeal, it shall be heard and decided by the Board, and the decision of the Board shall be final.

46. Procedure in case of notice to apply to Court to declare void.—Where under any of the foregoing provisions of the Act an applicant has an option to make an application either to the Court or to the Registrar—

(a) if an action concerning the trade mark in question is pending, the application must be made to the Court;

(b) if in any other case the application is made to the Registrar, he may, at any time of the proceedings, refer the application to the Court, or he may, after hearing the parties, determine the matter between them, subject to appeal to the Court.

Evidence.

47. Made of direct evidence.—In any proceeding under this Act before the Board of Trade or the Registrar, the evidence shall be given by statutory declaration in the absence of directions to the contrary. It shall be in the form of a statutory declaration given in law of or by a witness who takes evidence by declaration. Any such statutory declaration may be made by a witness in a declaration to the Court or then all evidence and cross-examination of witnesses by affidavit.

In any case part of the evidence is taken by affidavit, the Board of Trade or the Registrar shall, in respect of requiring the attendance of witnesses and taking evidence on oath, be in the same position in all respects as an official justice of the Supreme Court.

48. Evidence of orders, etc., of Board of Trade.—(1) All documents purporting to be orders made by the Board of Trade and to be sealed with the seal of the Board, or to be signed by a secretary or an under-secretary or an assistant secretary of the Board, or by any person authorized in that behalf by the Board, shall be received in evidence, and shall be deemed to be such orders without further proof, unless the contrary is shown.

(2) A certificate, signed by the President of the Board of Trade, that any order made as set out in the order or not of the Board, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact as stated.

49. Evidence of orders or certificates.—(1) A printed or written copy of any entry in the register, as appearing to be certified by the Registrar and sealed with the seal of the Patent Office, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts, and in all proceedings, without further proof or production of the original.

(2) Any person requiring such a certified copy as aforesaid shall be entitled to obtain it on payment of the prescribed fee.

50. Evidence of things done by Registrar.—A certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Registrar as to any entry, matter or thing that he has done by him or by the Registrar or by any other person shall be prima facie evidence of the entry having been made, and of the contents thereof, and of the matter or thing having been done or not done.

Offences and restraint of use of Royal Arms.

51. Publication of entries in register in misstatements.—(1) If any person makes or causes to be made a false entry in the register, or a writing falsely purporting to be a copy of an entry in the register, or publishes or causes to be published or delivered in evidence any such writing, knowing the entry or writing to be false, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

(2) In the case of the person charged for an offence under this section shall be imprisonment for any term not exceeding six years, with or without hard labour and with or without a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, at the discretion of the Court.

52. False entry representing a trade mark as registered.—(1) Any person who makes a representation—

(a) with respect to a mark not being a registered trade mark, to the effect that it is a registered trade mark; or

(b) with respect to a mark which is a registered trade mark, to the effect that it is not registered; or

(c) to the effect that the registration of a trade mark gives an exclusive right to the use thereof in any circumstances in which, having regard to limitations entered on the register, the registration does not give that right, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

53. For the purposes of this section, the use in the United Kingdom in relation to a trade mark of the word "registered" or of any other word referring whether expressly or impliedly to registration, shall be deemed to import a reference to registration in the register, except—

(a) where that word is used in physical connection with other words (including in circumstances at least as large as those in which that word is registered) as a trade mark used by the holder of a country outside the United Kingdom, being a country under the law of which the registration referred to is in fact in force;

(b) where that word is used in a way other than in relation to a trade mark used under the law of a country outside the United Kingdom and in relation to goods to be exported to that country;

let, and every such order, rule, regulation, requirement, table of fees, certificate, notice, document, stamp, ticket of leave, approval, application or document, (being short of, or in force at the commencement of this Act, continue in force and effect, so far as it could have been made, issued, given or done under this Act, have effect as made, issued, given or done under the corresponding enactment of this Act.

(2) Any document referring to any enactment repealed by this Act shall be construed as referring to the corresponding enactment of this Act.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the operation of section thirty-eight of the Interpretation Act, 1939.

THE 1939 BILL, COMMENCEMENT AND EXTENT—(1) This Act may be cited as the Trade Marks Act, 1939.

(2) This Act shall come into operation on the date fixed by order made under subsection (3) of section forty-three of the Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1938, for the coming into operation of that Act, or this Act referred to as "the appointed day," in accordance with the coming into operation of that Act.

(3) It is hereby declared that this Act extends to Northern Rhodesia.

(4) This Act shall extend to the Isle of Man.

The detailed schedule of work and schedule of rates of work can be obtained at the Executive Engineer's office at Northcham or in any of the following offices at any time between 10 noon to 4 p.m. on any working day. Tenders shall be in power and form obtainable from the office stated above. An earnest money of Rs. 200 (or such work shall be deposited into any treasury within the jurisdiction of the Executive Engineer, Calcutta Northern Division, and the tender must be enclosed in the envelope. Only Rs. 50 will be the time (1) (2) (3) and (4).

G. SETHURAMAN,

Executive Engineer, Calcutta Northern Division.

Northcham, 24th February 1935.

TENDER FOR CONVEYANCE OF MATERIALS FROM TADEPALLI AND STANAGARAH QUARRIES BY GOVERNMENT FUNDS AND PRIVATE CARGO BOATS FOR THE RY WORKS OF THE KISTNA RIVER IN GUNTUR DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1934-35.

Tenders will be received by the Executive Engineer, Guntur Division, at his office at Guntur up to 4 p.m. on 25th February 1935 for conveyance of materials by Government boats or private cargo boats for the various works at Kistna river in Guntur Division for 1934-35.

Tenders should be in the prescribed form obtainable from the Executive Engineer's office. Tenders presented after 4 p.m. will not be received. Separate tenders should be submitted for separate private cargo boats and Government boats.

3. Tenders should be submitted in sealed covers and should be submitted to the Executive Engineer, Quarter Division, the name of the tenderer and the name of the work being tendered on the cover.

If the tender is made by an individual it should be signed with his full name, and his address should be given. If it is made by a firm it shall be signed with the corporate seal, countersigned by a member of the firm who shall also sign his own name, and the name and address of each member of the firm shall be given. If the tender is made by a representative it shall be signed by a duly authorized officer who shall produce with his tender satisfactory evidence of his authorization. Such tendering, however, may be required before the contract is awarded to furnish evidence of its corporate existence.

4. Each tenderer must pay as earnest money a sum of Rs. 400 (four hundred only) for each lot into the branch of the Imperial Bank of India or into a Government treasury or sub-treasury within the jurisdiction of the Executive Engineer, Quarter Division, in the credit of "Revenue Department, on behalf of the Executive Engineer, Quarter Division," and replace with his tender the cheque enclosed accordingly. This earnest money will be returned to the tenderer in full after the expiration of one month after the date of tender, whichever is earlier. This refund will be authorized by the Executive Engineer by a suitable endorsement on the cheque. The earnest money will not be received in cash or currency notes by the Public Works Department offices. The earnest money will be retained in the case of the successful tenderer and will not carry any interest.

5. When a tender is to be accepted, the tenderer whose tender is under consideration shall attend the Division office on the date fixed by the written intimation to him. He shall forthwith upon intimation being given to him by the Executive Engineer of acceptance of his tender sign an agreement or the proper departmental form for the due fulfilment of the contract. The earnest money will be retained as security for the due fulfilment of the contract. Failure to enter into the required agreement or to attend Division office on the date fixed as defined in this paragraph shall entail forfeiture of the earnest money. The earnest money will be retained on the date of the contract.

6. Other conditions of contract and the contract documents can be seen at any time between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on office days in the office of the Executive Engineer, Quarter Division, Berhampore.

7. Every tenderer is expected before quoting his rate to inspect the locality proposed. The Government will not, after acceptance of a contract, pay any extra charges for land or any other cause in case the tenderer is found later on to have erred in quoting his rates.

8. Every tenderer is expected before quoting his rates to inspect the Government plots to be let to him, the landing station, etc.

- (b) measurement of stacks of materials inclusive of roads in general,
- (c) accidents,
- (d) delays,
- (e) no liabilities, and
- (f) particular of payment.

10. The rates and the work by the rates should be written both in words and figures. The tender should be written legibly and free from erasures, over-writings or measurements of figures. Corrections where unavoidable should be made by crossing out, inserting, deleting and rewriting.

11. The tenderer should mark out his own responsibility without reference being made to the Public Works Department current schedule rates which are not open for inspection by candidates and tenderer not identified in proper form or in due time will be rejected. Rates not marked for should not be referred to in the tender. No attention which is made by tenderer in the contract form will be recognized and if any such alterations are made, the tender will be void.

12. No part of the contract shall be valid without written permission of the Executive Engineer, nor shall transfer be made by power-of-attorney authorizing others to receive payment on the contractor's behalf.

13. The Executive Engineer or other authorized authority reserves the right to reject any tender or all the tenders without assigning any reasons therefor.
